CogSci 2025 Sponsorship & Exhibitor Prospectus

Dear Collaborators and Industry Partners,

The Society invites you to support our upcoming conference, CogSci 2025, connecting with a worldwide audience in person in San Francisco, USA. We look forward to bringing this international conference to the United States and develop our growing community of 4000+ members. We're excited at the prospect of working with industry partners to promote products and services that help and support the field of cognitive science on an international scale.

The Annual Meeting of the Cognitive Science Society is the world's premiere annual conference for the interdisciplinary study of cognition. Cognitive Science draws on a broad spectrum of disciplines, topics, and methodologies, including ideas from artificial intelligence, neuroscience, education, psychology, philosophy, linguistics, and anthropology.

Advertise in our digital congress program, be an exhibitor and share your product, or sponsor a portion of the congress to receive extended exposure to the Cognitive Science community.

Your presence at our conference is a much-appreciated demonstration of your support for CogSci 2025: Theories of The Past. Theories of The Future.

Sincerely,
The CogSci 2025 Organizing Committee

RECRUITMENT SESSION

The Annual Conference of the Cognitive Science Society features presentations of the top cognitive science research in the world. Cognitive science is a highly interdisciplinary field, drawing on artificial intelligence, neuroscience, education, psychology, philosophy, linguistics, and anthropology. Scholars attending the CogSci meetings have distinctive technical and scientific expertise especially on how people think, feel, and communicate with others, which are critical to developing technologies that interact with people. Cognitive scientists not only can bring technological innovation in your company but also can contribute to high-level decision making based on solid scientific evidence.

We offer Platinum Sponsors the opportunity to host a 1hr recruitment session, where you can present information about your organization and potentially recruit key members to your team.

With official registration, we can track who registers, who attends, and assist with calculating your ROI.
